DETROIT WINS ANOTHER GAME.

BEAVY HITTING BY THE WOLVERINES-THE SCORE IN DETAIL. Boston, Oct. 18.—The eighth game in the world's ampionship series between St. Louis and Detroit was played in this city to day and was won easily by Detroit men. Caruthers was not nearly as ef fective as usual, and the Detroits kept the ball going all over the field, the batting throughout the contes being terrific. The st. Louis players fielded brilliantly at times, but at others their playing was rather loose Caruthers fielded spiendidly, and his playing, with that of Robinson and Rushong, comprised the chief teatures. Robinson did fine work with the stick. making three two-baggers. He was presented, when he first came to the bat, with a fine gold-headed cano his Boston friends, the presentation being made Wise, of the Bostons. Thompson's two home runs and the slugging of the Detroit players generally features, although their fielding, with the exception of two unimportant errors by Ganzel, was absolutely perfect, and White's third base play was About 4,000 people witnessed the game.

DOWNFALL OF THE REV. FRANK H. DECKER THE CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION WITHDRAWS 178 FELLOWSRIP FROM HIM.

At a special meeting of the New-York and Brooklyn Congregational Arectation in the parlors of Plymouth Church jesterday, felowship was withdrawn from the Rev. Prank H. Lecker, whose name was scandalously connected with that of a young woman in Greenport, L. I., while he was pastor there and after he went to the East Church in Brooklyn last summer. He resigned from his pulpit, ending the investigation and was dismissed from membership in it, when the matter had been inquired into by the officers of the The association took up the matter because Mr. Docker was licensed to preach by it about four ears ago. At the meeting yesterday, Dr. Edward Beecher read

At the meeting yesterday, Dr. Edward Receber read the report of the committee in charge of the matter. In the report the committee said:

"Mr. Incher's statements to the committee include a frank azimission that he had been repeatedly guilty of ial-schools and deceptions in relation to the difficulties at Greenport, and also that he had been most sourowfully and inexcussibly indiscreet. We cannot overlook the fast, which he admits, that he inexcussibly fell in love with the young woman with whom his name has been associated and allowed her to become enamored with himself, and more, husband and father though he is, encouraged and solicited her affection and authorized her to address him as her husband.

Absolutely Pure.

He disavows any intercourse with her legally criminal and there is no evidence of such guilt before your committee."

The report was signed by Dr. Heecher and the Rev. Mesars. S. B. Habiday and J. W. Malcolm, in discussing it the Rev. W. H. Inger-oil urged that Mr. Decker be suspended in-fead of dismissed. Ir. Heecher said this could not be done, as he was already a deposed minister. The report was then unanimously a opted. Mr. Decker told Dr. Heecher afterward, that he had been led to believe that if he confessed and repended he would not be cut off from the association, and this result surprised him.
